

LYSB's Lyme-Old Lyme Scavenger Hunt

- The only place in town you can get shells made out of chocolate.
- Phoebe stores all of her books here, and if you are really lucky, she might even let you borrow one.
- Walk the dock to the very end to see one of Old Lyme's most gorgeous views.
- Every October, a group of tiny fairies visits this Old Lyme landmark.
- A Lyme location that you will find local farmer's every Saturday morning in the summer.
- When things get hot, this department will always volunteer to help you out.
- A building with a tall steeple and bold, red front doors.

- Every August, these grounds are transformed with rides and amusements.
- Old Lyme's Oldest School building now teaches our youngest students.
- Home to lots of beautiful horses and a festive holiday market.
- A Lyme Street landmark where you will find kids of all ages playing afterschool.
- Visit this lake in the summertime and you will find kids swimming and playing in the sun.
- Walk down the driveway to find a variety of sculptures, both large and small.
- Depending on the season, you will find kids playing soccer, lacrosse or baseball here.
- If you find yourself at the four corners, stop in to this country store for a coffee or a sandwich.
